

JASNA Greater Phoenix is honored to host a virtual presentation of

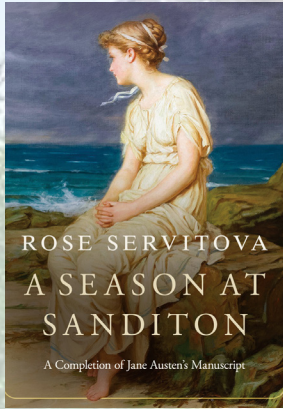

A Season at Sanditon

by award-winning author Rose Servitova

Saturday, October 22, 2022, 11:00 AM MST

R.s.v.p. by October 21 to jasnaphx@gmail.com

Log-on instructions will be sent upon response.

With special guest Karen Ievers, presented from her 18th-century home Mount Ievers Court in Ireland. Karen will share some of her Jane Austen-related paraphernalia that she has collected throughout the years, including a portrait of Tom Lefroy. Rose will discuss her experiences with completing Jane Austen's unfinished work as well as read segments from her new novel.

Feel free to join Rose and Karen with a cup of tea and piece of cake during the event and a glass of bubbly at the end to toast the launch of A Season at Sanditon. Attendees will have chances to win copies of the book.

See the JASNA Greater Phoenix website for more details. <https://jasnaphx.org>

Regency attire always admired, but never required.

Virtually presented by the Jane Austen Society of North America Greater Phoenix Region